of the city represent several hundred dollars already given at each tree.

Though the response has been generous, the Philadelphia committee feels residents of this city have done little in comparison to those of other cities in this matter, and wishes to bring up its quots of children adopted at this time to compare more favorably with the quotas elsewhere. quotas elsewhere.

At the beginning of the present drive only 3000 children had been adopted here in comparison to 150,000 in Chicago.

New Jersey Authorities Want This State to Enact Law

Commissioners of Navigation from New Jersey this afternoon urged the ensemble of a bill in Pennsylvania to authorize the collection of income from sand aredged out of the Delaware River.

The request was made to a special lifting.

At the time Brown was arrested and antibute of this crime in this city, he was under parole in New York, where his sentence of five years for burglary had been cut in two because of his promises to reform. He will be returned to New York to serve out the sentence.

The request was made to a special committee of Fennsylvania navigation commissioners at a joint meeting held in the Bourse.

Such a law is in force in New Jerney, applying to the eastern half of the five. The New Jerney officials asked for a similiar charge of five cents perfoot be made on the Pennsylvania side of the river.
